ABOUT TRICIA MUNN (PRESENTER)

Tricia Munn has just one goal. To protect school aged children, families and adults from the widespread dangers that exist on social media networks.

Through personal experience, years of diligent research and investigation, Tricia has identified critical problems in the security functions provided on all major social media platforms.

Bullies, predators and harassment have flourished on social media and Tricia has discovered that poorly understood security settings are enabling the worst forms of online behaviour.

Not satisfied to have simply discovered the depth of the problem, Tricia has worked tirelessly to develop a comprehensive solution to very harmful anti-social behaviour online.
