What we've been up to in the past fortnight!

Over the past fortnight we have been rearranging a few things within the service to provide more room for children's art work. One thing we've started this week is the 'This Week' wall which is a collaboration of written things which the children have done throughout the week. We've also been discussing with the children their outside school extra-curricula activities they participate in, to put up on the community wall.

What we have planned for the next fortnight!

Over the next fortnight we are planning to still rearrange artworks and to update the healthy eating program wall which is currently located on the silver cupboard. For art and craft we are planning to make stuffed calico dolls and much more.
