Chapter one: The rise of the cyborg ninjas

Superhero school is out so that means Mr Piggy Winkle has a month and a half for saving innocent people of summer land, and Mr Akimbo has more time in his hands to make more inventions to prove his company is very smart minded. One evening Mr Akimbo just finished his new invention: The Cyborg Ninja. He used his cloning ray to make more of the cyborg ninjas. Mr Akimbo was Mr Piggy Winkle's friend, so he made the cyborg ninjas to save people when Mr Piggy Winkle is lazy to do so. One day Mr Piggy Winkle was really tired so this was Mr Akimbo's chance to try the Cyborg ninjas out. When there was a bank robbery on Baker Street The cyborg ninjas detected it and they dramatically defeated the bank robbers leaving them to be arrested by the cops. One by one the cyborg ninjas left the location silently. Well, that was beginners luck. The next time it went horribly wrong, they ended up shooting the witnesses (nobody got hurt). They then had to retreat.

Chapter two: The destruction of the cyborg ninjas

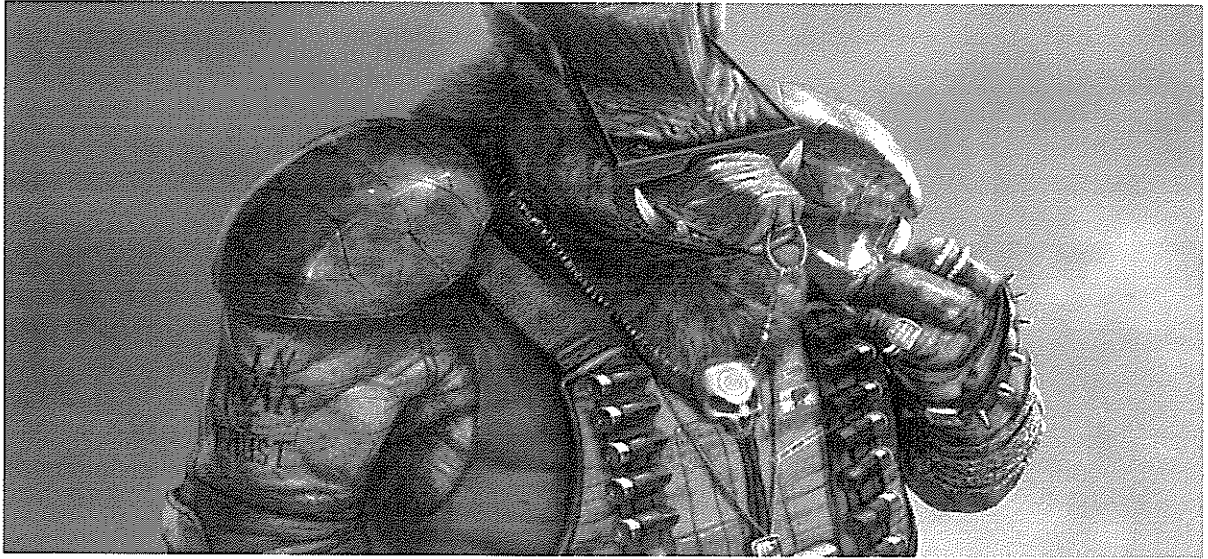

The cyborg ninjas started to learn the wrong thing from the robbers. They read the minds of the robber, that made them to betray the good side. When they finished their "crime fighting" they didn't come back to Mr Akimbo, they went to an old, abandoned warehouse in the town square. They found some old robbing blueprints. Robot 1 reported "We will start this caper after dawn". They then went to bed. "Were are they?,they should be back by now" Mr Akimbo exclaimed. He invited Mr Piggy Winkle over to his house. "Have you seen the cyborg ninjas?" Mr Akimbo questioned. "No I haven't , why do you ask?"asked Mr Piggy Winkle. "Oh, they have been out all evening"exclaimed Mr Akimbo "Oh okay, I will make sure to find them tonight" answered Mr Piggy Winkle.

Chapter three: To make a long story short

He found them.

Chapter four: Mr Piggy Winkles vs The cyborg ninjas

When they laid eyes on each other they knew they had to end it all in a big blockbuster- like fight. They ended up fighting in The Town Square. The lights of all of the apartments went on and windows went up. The town was watching, it was scary for Mr Piggy Winkles because he was scared that people where watching but he was determined to defeat The cyborg ninjas. He used all of his might to defeat the cyborg ninjas one by one, pulling out all their circuits and wires. Finally he defeated them and everyone cheered for him "How should we repay you, Mr Piggy Winkle?!" "No pay needed Mam!" Mr Akimbo was glad that they were destroyed even though they were his creations. And finally Mr Piggy Winkles went back to superhero school. What a month and a half!
