Term 4 Oct 14 - Dec 6

All the hard work of the past 3 terms paid off on Friday night , Sept 6 at the Aspley Art Affair. The school hall saw massive crowds enjoying an evening of visual art and music. The show was entitled "Turning the Tide" and displayed work from all year levels which concentrated on the negative impact that plastics have on our marine environment.

I was thrilled to see families engaging with and discussing the works on show with their children. I truly believe that the arts can have a huge impact on children and adults alike and that such events are a powerful way of bringing the community together.

Art is a Shared Experience: The creation of art is a collective activity. Art forms such as dance, theatre and choir all require a group of artists and an audience. Even the solitary painter or poet relies upon the craft of the paint-maker or book-binder to help create art. Art offers us a reason to come together and share in an experience. We need art to keep us connected.
